NOTE FROM THE GM

NICK VASIL, GENERAL MANAGER

The Spring and Summer months are shaping up to be an exciting time around the Club. Our Social calendar is filling up with events as the temperatures rise. Mother's Day is set to have 120 members and guests come through the doors, as well as our Spring Wine Expo outside on the Promenade. Zoran's Cocktail Classes have been a hit as well. You can feel the buzz of Summer around the Club.

We are committed to continue with improvements around the Club and Sports Center. The Compass Rose Bar is open on the weekends. Starting June 5th, the Compass Rose Bar will be open weekly from Wednesday to Sunday with entertainment on Sundays. We look forward seeing everyone out enjoying the pool and other amenities around the Sports Center.

July 1st we will be celebrating the South Carolina Yacht Club's 35th Anniversary. Leading up to July 1st we have a week packed with activities around the Club that will end with an Anniversary celebration at the Pool. Please keep an eye out for the schedule of events coming out soon.

As we get into the summer season around the Club and Sport Center, we would like to remind all of our members of our guest policies. Please remember all payments for services rendered to guests, whether dining, or any sporting activity, must be paid by the hosting member. In our Club Rules it states that a non-member may be a guest of a member (4) four times annually. With associated cost of labor, cost of goods, and ancillary cost, dues are the lifeline of our Club. We have lost members who see non-members enjoying their benefits and we cannot afford to jeopardize the value of membership. Our goal moving into our 35th year is to make sure we put our members and their member benefits at the top. We invite you to take a positive position on this subject with guests/non-members who play or dine with you and invite them to join the Club. We would love to have your friends as members! Please feel free to reach out with any questions or concerns and thank you for your time and understanding.

Nick Vasil, General Manager

Pink Luncheon and Fashion Show: March 14, 2024

Thank you to everyone, SCYC members and special guests, who attended and supported the Pink Luncheon and Fashion Show featuring Sara Campbell on March 14th. We had a full house! Everyone came out with their “Pink Version” of themselves that day. It was truly another memorable event!

This event was in honor and support of Breast Cancer Wellness and Research. Proceeds from the flowers sold, the trunk show, and luncheon went to Volunteers in Medicine’s Women’s Breast Health Program that will be used for Breast Cancer Support Group and Mammograms.

We would like to especially thank Sylvia Gaines and Laura Lemenze for their time and effort to organize such a special and worthwhile cause. We would also like to acknowledge the very talented ladies of Plantation Garden Club, Kitty Sperry and Sally Nielsen, for arranging and hand crafting beautiful flowers for the luncheon. Finally, thank you to the beautiful and fun models, Susan Geller, Darcy Gulbin, Laura Lemenze and Cookie Slater. They strutted down the Catesby catwalk with such ease and elegance!

Club Commissioning: March 10, 2024

On Sunday, March 10th, SCYC celebrated its 35th Annual Club Commissioning Ceremony led by Commodore Eric Norman. We were blessed with great weather, blue skies and attendance of our amazing members! The event was followed by a scrumptious brunch buffet enjoyed by all!

Thank you to everyone who came and joined us. Let the boating season begin!

Easter Weekend: March 2024

On Saturday, March 30th, we had our very popular Easter Egg Hunt and Family Luncheon. And on Sunday, March 31st is our traditional Easter Sunday Brunch Buffet. We had a very nice turn out for both events and we are always delighted to see families celebrating together.

We also love watching the children welcome the Easter Bunny with so much love (and a little bit of uncertainty for some).

Report from Olympic Trials

by ARABELLA DUER

This February, I competed at the 2024 US Olympic Team Trials for the women's single-handed dinghy (ILCA 6). The Olympic Trials were the longest and most competitive regatta I've ever sailed in. To ensure the highest level of challengers in the Olympic Trials, candidates qualified at designated events or applied by resume. The Trials were the last part of qualification for the Olympics. Previously the US qualified to send a representative to the Olympic Games in the ILCA 6, fulfilling the country qualification. The US Olympic Team Trials were the athlete selection event, meaning the winner of the Trials would go on to compete at the Olympics as the US representative.

I qualified for the Olympic Trials by participating in the Richmond Yacht Club Olympic Class Regatta. This event was held in San Francisco, California in mid-August. The qualifying event's conditions were stereotypical

San Francisco, with all of the days blowing above 15 knots, making it one of the windiest regattas I had ever sailed in. It was a challenging event; however, I was able to finish the regatta in one of the top spots needed to qualify.

To prepare for the Olympic Trials, I used a combination of training at my yacht club, South Carolina Yacht Club in Hilton Head, and specific events chosen to improve particular areas of my sailing that I knew I needed to develop before the Olympic Trials. For part of my training plan, I attended the Orange Bowl

Regatta held in Miami in December, since it is the largest youth regatta in the US. The Orange Bowl Regatta delivered the large fleet starts and spirited competitors that I was looking for to gain practice starting on the line and holding a clear lane coming off the start. The next large event that I chose to help me prepare was ILCA 6 Youth Worlds in Mar del Plata, Argentina in January. I chose this event for the high level of competition and for the venue. Again, the event provided. With even more wind and waves than expected,

In & Around The Club: Sailing

ILCA 6 Youth Worlds served to give me ocean sailing experience that made all previous conditions I had sailed in seem mild. These events were superb experiences in and of themselves and helped to prepare me for the conditions and competition I expected to encounter in Miami.

At the Olympic Trials, I was able to race against the top sailors in the US. At 17, this experience enabled me to see how I compare against my idols and what skills I need to work on to get to their level. Further, participating in this event allowed me to have Olympic Trial experience leading into the next Olympic cycle. Some of my goals leading into this regatta included improving holding my lane off the start line and getting more open water experience. The racing was eight days long with one day in the middle saved as a reserve day. The conditions at this event were varied and pushed my sailing skills to the limit. Almost all the days had a sea breeze that filled in the afternoon. Some of the days turned into survival for me due to heavy wind and big waves as I am one of the smallest sailors in the ILCA 6 and can't keep the boat as flat as the other competitors. One of the days we had a front come through with 40+ knot puffs, and I was proud to be able to finish the race and sail at a record-breaking speed back to the Miami Yacht Club. By the end of the regatta and especially on the lighter air days, I was able to hold my lane for longer and longer every day. Back home we don't have the opportunity to sail in such big waves, so I was thankful to have another opportunity to work on my technique in those conditions.

Coming out of the event I learned that I need to spend even more time sailing in the ocean to learn the nuances of driving over large swell. I also need to spend more time at the gym to gain the endurance and strength needed to excel in high winds. This event was an incredible experience, and I can't wait to see what the future holds as I continue to sail at such a high level. Since the Olympic Trials, I have had the opportunity to put the skills I learned into practice. At the ILCA Gulf Coast Championships, we had big breeze every day, but I was able to put my knowledge from ocean racing at the Olympic Trials into effect. ILCA Mid-Winters West was also the Youth Worlds Qualifier and going into day three I was the top US Youth female, showing that all this training is paying off. Overall, the Olympic Trials taught me a lot about my sailing and what I need to do going forward.

I would like to thank all the people and sponsors who have guided and assisted me to get me where I am now. I would especially like to thank South Carolina Yacht Club, the Paul Miller Fund and its donors, my coach Mark Newman for the training and support, and my coach Pedro Mascarenhas for his coaching at the Olympic Trials and beyond. And of course, I would like to thank my parents for their endless support in all my sailing endeavors.

South Carolina Yacht Club: Looking Back Thirty Five Years

by CLUB FOUNDER JAMES N. RICHARDSON, JR.

July 1, 1989 was a one of a kind evening on Hilton Head Island. Over five hundred elegant guests, dressed in Black tie, filled the Club, the promenade, and porches to experience a Club that was created to honor, South Carolina, our beloved State. Fireworks, caviar and ice sculptures were special effects of the Gala celebration. Thirty Five years ago there were less than 10,000 people living on Hilton Head Island and South Carolina Yacht Club's Opening was the talk of the Island. It was the event of the year.

It was a special time in my life as Leslie and I were married three months earlier, April 1, 1989, in Charlotte with a wedding of over five hundred guests. In a three-month time span after our wedding, we welcomed guests into our "home away from home" that we both poured our hearts into, The South Carolina Yacht Club.

When the Club opened, we had an esteemed group of Founding and Charter Members who we honor to this day. These early members were the foundation of our Club. Leslie and I had "hard hat" dinner parties in the club every night two months before the Club opened to invite people in for a sneak peak of the Club. People fell in love with the casually elegant, boutique Club. We were fortunate so many wonderful people joined the club before she opened.

We felt using the name, South Carolina Yacht Club, required great care to live up to the State's name. We set out to create a place where the notable history of South Carolina shone through. The Catesby Dining room was named for Mark Catesby who was an explorer in the early 1700's. He was the first to conduct a critical study of the lush and varied habitat of the Southeast colonies of North America. Mark Catesby recorded the fish, flora, and fauna. He particularly studied the environs of the South Carolina and the Georgia side of the Savannah River. His studies and hand-colored renderings showed the natural beauty of colonial America a century before Audubon. I bought Mark Catesby's entire collection of fish to display in the dining rooms and then named the dining rooms, the Catesby Dining rooms.

SCYC's 35th Anniversary

The South Carolina Yacht Club was an anomaly, positioned on the largest harbour on Hilton Head Island on the only locked harbour on the Intracoastal waterway. News spread and boaters and yachtsmen from around the world entered her locks to pull up to her promenade. We had members who did not own homes in South Carolina but wanted to be a part of something magical.

My family moved to the Island before the bridge, I had the privilege of learning to sail with Charles Fraser. As the South Carolina Yacht Club came together, one of my missions was to create an opportunity for young people to experience the wind in your face that comes from sailing. After Thirty Five years, and under the direction of, Mark Newman, who has been with the Club for ten years, we have developed a program that has sent our junior sailors to Worlds and hopefully on to the Olympics. We are all very proud of our Junior Sailors, I know Charles would be.

Family and community is at the top of my priority list. Our children feel rooted on Hilton Head Island as they grew up celebrating every special occasion at South Carolina Yacht Club. For Leslie and me, creating traditions and involving our children was a basis of raising our family. The South Carolina Yacht Club wraps their arms around each member and their family. Everyone feels special when they walk in the door.

The real beauty of South Carolina Yacht Club is her "members". The Club Family is an elegant warm and engaging group of people. Camaraderie is the peak tier of Club membership. Fellowship and community are at the heart of all the events at the Club. Our amazing Staff, under Nick Vasil's leadership, make a point to know you individually. April Langill, who has been at the Club over twenty years, even remembers anniversaries and pets' names. When you enter the South Carolina Yacht Club, our goal is for every member to feel special and at home. The members are our greatest asset. Whether you have been a member for one week or Thirty Five years, Leslie and I deeply appreciate you and hope you enjoy your Club as much as we do.

We are excited to Celebrate Thirty Five years. We have a varied list of activities June 25th to July 1st. We hope you will carve out your time to join us for some or all of the week long of Anniversary events. Cheers to Thirty Five years!

Between the Lines

by GREG MCDANIEL, TENNIS DIRECTOR

USTA season runs all year with various teams and combos participating. We are well underway, nearing the end of the second quarter and moving into the summer season. For me, watching the matches is like watching your children play a sport. You want them all to win! SCYC has been well represented and become very competitive in nature over the last year.

It is getting hotter; the bugs are getting denser. South Carolina in the summer has its own personality – yet, we long for it in the winter. We are getting ready to host the children for the summer tennis camp. Time to groom the youngsters for what may be a lifelong love – tennis.

Don't lose sight that we have more pickleball activity weekly and social events as well...providing the events don't get rained out!

As always, use the summer to hone your game and gear up for the fall. Many people leave, and there is plenty of opportunity to perfect those shots you 'should have made.' When our friends and neighbors return, you'll have those shots mastered. I am here to help you if needed!

Sports Committee Report

by LORI CLARK, SPORTS COMMITTEE CHAIR

Coach Greg, Mark Newman (Sports Committee Director), Mr. Vasil (GM) and I, along with the entire SCYC Sports Committee, have a goal to elevate play at our home courts. You can help this happen. This is a tricky time with many players participating in USTA which has us all scattered in different directions. Soon, many will be leaving for the summer.

LORI CLARK
SPORTS COMMITTEE CHAIR

Our hope is to have all those here for the summer come together and play social tennis and participate in tennis and pickleball events. While being competitive with each other, let's come together and fill the courts. Despite our ratings, despite our gender, despite our many SCYC teams – we have the ability to become one and boost each other in play to strengthen our skills.

It's hot in the summer, some can tolerate the heat, some can barely manage.... this will be an opportunity to mesh with those who stay 'home' for the summer. Think outside the box and help us make it happen.

We are nearing pool time.

Sports Center News

I am sure the children are clamoring to jump in! The SCYC is working hard to provide additional activities for all venues we have to offer. Keep an eye on your emails which inform you of all the fun things you may wish to attend.

Make this a summer of fun- there's a lot to enjoy right here on our home turf!

– Be well, Lori Clark

Cruising News

by DONNA COUCH, CRUISE FLEET COMMANDER

DONNA COUCH,
CRUISE FLEET COMMANDER

We've been on the go! The Cruising Fleet has been very active with some great trips, speakers and events. And we will continue to be through May and June.

At our April meeting we all enjoyed Peter Dion and Hal Wilson's presentation on The Great Loop. They had many great pictures and tales to tell. It truly is the trip of a lifetime.

Both Boat Cruisers and Land Cruisers traveled to Thunderbolt Marina in April where we partied with live music, provided by Mark Anthony, to enjoy our 'Tribute to Jimmy Buffett.' We enjoyed Margaritas and Cheeseburgers in Paradise, along with some mighty tasty apps provided by the attendees.

The next morning, we followed up with a tour of Bonaventure Cemetery, resting place of Johnny Mercer and many other notable Savannahians. It is a gorgeous cemetery with some of the oldest and most beautiful live oaks you have ever seen. Taking a tour is highly recommended.

In addition to our other April activities, a group of Cruise Fleet members attended the Marine Corps Recruit Graduation ceremony. It was an early morning wakeup call to arrive at Parris Island in time, but it was worth it. The ceremony was moving, inspirational and so patriotic. Many thanks to Suzanne and Ty Giesemann for setting up this event. It is really something to remember.

May

Our Cinco de Mayo event on May 5th (obviously), originally scheduled at the Community Pool, has been rescheduled to Palmetto Bay Marina. We will be taking our boats there for one night and eating at the Black Marlin after enjoying Margaritas and apps on the dock. We have many Land Cruisers who will be joining us for Docktails and dinner. Contact trip captain, Cindy Wuensch, at cindyw9999@gmail.com for more information.

We also have a Port of Savannah tour scheduled for May 22. Everyone who took the tour last year loved it. Lunch will be at The Westin. The cost of the tour is approximately $65/pp. For more details, contact trip captain, Hal Wilson, halwilson48@gmail.com.

June

We are headed to Charleston on June 10th for three nights and we will be staying at the Charleston Harbor Resort & Marina on Mt. Pleasant. There is a resort at the marina for Land Cruisers who wish to come. We always have a great time in Charleston with lots of shopping and some fabulous meals. Jack Wuensch is the trip captain for Charleston and his contact address is jackwuensch@gmail.com.

Looking forward to seeing everyone at our Cruise Fleet meetings on May 2nd and June 6th. See you there!

Through the Grapevine: Wine Society

by SUSAN GELLER, WINE SOCIETY PRESIDENT

Welcome to Through The Grapevine!

In March, Wine Society experienced Wines from Washington State.

The Food and wine Pairings for Spectacular.

We started off with an amazing Karaage Style Fried Chicken, Sushi Rice Cake/Kimchi Vinaigrette that was paired with the Nine Hats Riesling.

Nine Hats was born out of the renowned Long Shadows Vintners – a winery dedicated to making world-class wines from Washington

Fruit. But not every moment calls for these wines, so we set out to make ordinary occasions special in their own right by using Long Shadows' tremendous winemaking facilities and knowledge to make a line of everyday wines. The result was delicious, approachable, thoroughly drinkable wines at a price point that meant we could enjoy them any day of the week.

This Riesling is sourced from German clone plantings at Bacchus Vineyard and from a cool site at Gamache Vineyard.

This wine has notes of citrus, jasmine, pear, and honeydew melon combined with an appealing level of minerality and acidity to provide a fresh and lengthy finish.

Next, we had a fantastic Grilled Lamb Chop Provençale with Eggplant Caviar and Dried Currant Gastrique which was paired with a Barnard Griffin Syrah.

Robert Griffin began in 1977 as head winemaker at Preston Cellars before moving to The Hogue Cellars in 1983. While there, he began making his own wine with his wife and partner, Deborah Barnard. Barnard Griffin Winery was established in 1983 with a small truckload of borrowed fruit and a rented cellar.

Barnard Griffin has since grown into one of Washington's most acclaimed wineries, and Rob recently celebrated his 43rd vintage in Washington.

As one of the elder statesmen of Washington wine, he holds an unrivaled knowledge of the region's various terroirs. His long-standing relationships with some of the State's best growers give him premier access to the very best grapes. Rob continues to be fully engaged in the winemaking and leadership of Barnard Griffin while ushering in the second generation of the family, passing on his wisdom and experience to Megan, his daughter and right-hand at the winery.

The Barnard Griffin Syrah displays a rich mix of tart cherry, black currant and dark berry flavors anchored by vibrant acidity. Plush, toasty, and elegant. A great match for grilled lamb or beef

We finished the evening with a Dark Chocolate Blueberry Mousse with Mocha Crème Anglaise paired with a wonderful Cabernet Sauvignon – Betz “The Untold Story.”

Betz Family of Wines crafts The Untold Story from some of the most famous vineyards in Washington, showcasing the world-class character of the state’s Cabernet Sauvignon. Since its initial release supporting local charities during the pandemic, it’s been a call to action: be bold and courageous in pursuing your dreams, especially when it’s risky. Push the envelope and never give up. Choose camaraderie and community in the face of adversity. No one else sees the world like you, so no one else can tell your story. It’s time to hear you roar.

Everyone has an "Untold Story" buried inside and waiting to be lived.

The Untold Story Cabernet Sauvignon is a wine with a purpose to inspire and encourage us. It challenges us to be bold in the face of adversity and follow our dreams, despite our circumstances. It’s about making a difference and helping others do the same!

The Untold Story with Blackcurrants, blueberries, tobacco, truffle, and spicy oak notes define its bouquet, and it’s medium to full-bodied, with a seamless, elegant mouthfeel, good acidity, and fine tannins.

Our April Wine Society Dinner was postponed and is now rescheduled for June 20, 2024.

SCYC is putting on a Spring Wine Expo, May 16th on Promenade with 5 different vendors pouring over 70 different wines. Please sign up with April if you have not already.

If you have any questions about Wine Society, feel free to contact Nick Vasil, nvasil@scyachtclub.com.
